Avtex Will Provide Networking Infrastructure by Acquiring Delta Communications, Inc of Wisconsin

MINNEAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Avtex Solutions, LLC announced today that it has acquired Delta Communications, Inc of Waukesha, Wisconsin. Avtex is a leading unified communications solution provider offering multimedia contact center, IP telephony, messaging applications, enterprise-wide collaboration and emergency notification solutions.

Delta Communications, Inc. designs, installs and supports technology needed for security, network optimization and network management.

Bob Denman, President of Avtex stated, "This acquisition accelerates our plans to offer a broader set of solutions in the growing convergence of Voice, Video, Data and Messaging network infrastructures. With Delta Communications, we now have all the tools necessary to manage the network environment for our customers. This is an important component in total system support."

Spencer Thomason, President of Delta Communications said, "Combining the two companies will bring products and expertise from several world-class manufacturers that we feel will be a perfect fit from a product, market and cultural perspective. The Delta Communications team looks forward to greater opportunities and a prosperous future under Avtex."

Denman indicated this marks the fifth acquisition for Avtex over the last five years. Avtex acquired Perimeter Technology of Atlanta, Georgia in November 2007, Interactive Solutions International LLC (ISI) of Cincinnati, OH, in March 2006, Telestar Communications, Inc., of Appleton, WI, in August 2005 and Soltris, Inc., of Minneapolis, MN in June 2003.
